

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 18, 1883.

OUR good old town is waking up, and in the progress race, is striking out and firmly means, to take no second place. The wealth that has been hoarded up, tight under lock and key, is coming out to labor's aid, and soon good things you'll see.

SPRING chickens are quoted this week at from 15 to 25 cents each.

Messrs. BURGESS & NOLIN are receiving a large lot of dry goods to-day.

MARSHAL REDMOND is good on a foot race but Joe Aikman can beat him.

The thermometer, yesterday, marked ninety degrees in the shade. It was one of the warmest days of the season.

The Legislative race is not attracting much attention, though both candidates are hard at work among their friends.

To keep flies off of gilt frames it is recommended to boil three or four onions in a pint of water and apply with a soft brush.

The examination of District school No. 1, Prof. H. C. Smith, Principal, will take place at the Opera House to-morrow morning.

A house and lot on Sixth street belonging to the Deal heirs was sold last week by Mr. John W. Alexander at public sale to Charles Deal for $898.

The lemonade and ice cream dealers find a bonanza in the present weather. That to be had at F. H. Traxel's establishment is especially good.

The excursion to Frankfort, yesterday, by the colored people was a great success. The train was crowded and the managers were obliged to disappoint many persons who were anxious to go.

A vacant lot on Third street in East Maysville belonging to Mrs. Israel Stickley was sold on Saturday by Geo. C. Goggin, to Daniel Cobb, for $320, subject to widow's dower.

ANOTHER important enterprise is projected in Maysville of which we shall have more to say hereafter. It is in the hands of some of the best men in the city, whose names are a guarantee of its success.

INDUSTRIAL enterprises are having a boom in Maysville. Anything that promises to be successful and useful meets with generous encouragement. Maysville is at last waking up from her twenty years of sleep.

If you desire a really good cigar at a moderate price try the "St. Julian" and "Electric." They are made by James S. Redmond, of this city, and are pronounced by smokers to be first class in every respect. Try them.

MR. WM. E. MYALL, of Mayslick, sold recently his crop of 7,650 pounds of tobacco to Winn Wells & Co., for $14.25 from the ground up. This crop of tobacco was raised on four acres of land, which is something over $270 an acre realized.

THERE was a regular shindig on Short street, last Saturday evening, which involved members of a family named Setters and another named Adams. There was a good deal of noise, but it seems that nobody was hurt. The matter is being investigated in the Mayor's court to-day.

THE examination of Prof. Josiah Wilson's school took place at the Opera House this morning. The exercises were very interesting and indicated a marked progress of the pupils during the past school year. Prof. Wilson is a very thorough teacher and has done his work carefully and well.

THE delay in putting the street railway in operation is in no way the fault of the builders. The firm who are making the cars contracted to have them here by the 15th inst., but failed to comply with their obligation. They have written, however, that they will be finished and ready to ship about the first of July.

THE Chattanooga, (Tenn.) Democrat says:

"The Chattanooga Manufacturing Company, formerly the Sandusky Wheel Company, has recognized with a capital of $50,000, which they propose to increase very soon to $100,000. They will erect an addition to their present buildings one hundred and twenty feet long and then manufacture wagons and hacks complete. The officers of the company are C. S. Pearce, President; L. E. Pearce, Secretary and Treasurer; L. B. Dennis, Superintendent. At present the company makes a specialty of spokes."

MR. W. H. MEANS has just sold from his farm at Rome, Ohio, a crop of about 10,000 pounds of tobacco for fifteen cents a pound all around. It was an unusually fine crop and was sold to J. C. Dugan, of Higginsport, Ohio. The place contains about six hundred acres of land, a large part of which is suitable for tobacco and the balance is in fine timber. It is for sale.

A Thriving Town.

The editor of the Yeoman, who was in Maysville a few days ago, has the following to say of our improvements: "Maysville has nearly completed a line of three miles and a quarter of street railroad, and within the next thirty days cars will be running from the extreme eastern and western limits of that city. The cost of the road and its equipments will not exceed $25,000, and the prevailing opinion is that the investment will prove a very profitable one. The stock is owned by a few men of enterprise, who will keep the line in good order. In addition to this, Maysville now has the finest system of water works in the State. She has large engines established on the bank of the river at the east end; and a reservoir on one of the highest of the hills surrounding the place. The water is conducted to the city in very heavy mains, which are capable of standing the immense pressure, and her facilities for extinguishing fires, flooding streets and sewers, and for supplying water-power to all kinds of machinery are unsurpassed. About eight miles of pipe are already in place, and the power is being used in a variety of ways. The elevators in the stores are operated by hydraulic pressure, and water-power engines are being introduced. Under a contract with the owners of the work, the city is to be perpetually supplied with water for extinguishing fires and cleaning the streets free of all future charge, the consideration being a cash subscription of $50,000. Besides these features, Maysville is also about to employ the electric light.

PERSONALS.

Mr. James H. Hall returned from Cincinnati, Saturday evening.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, of Newport, is the guest of Mrs. Malissa Rosser.

Mrs. Matilda Eitel, of this city, left on Saturday to visit relatives at Higginsport, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fox, of New York are the guests of Mr. Emile Martin. They will return home to-morrow.

Mr. S. Salomon is expected to arrive in Maysville this week, and go to work immediately in the interest of the electric light enterprise.

Prof. C. J. Hall's school being closed he is now enjoying his annual vacation. He says that the report that he is to summer in Norway and Sweden, is also only a report.

Mr. George Dulin died suddenly on the 13th inst., at the farm of O. L. Wells, near Flemingsburg. He was formerly a resident of this county and was about fifty years of age.

Mr. Herman Lange and wife, accompanied by their interesting son, Sidney, will leave on the Bonanza this evening for Cincinnati to attend the wedding of Mr. Jacob Sachs.

Messrs. Tim Hierley and James Kehoe left Saturday evening for Winchester, the former to take a position in the Clark County Democrat office, in place of Mr. Thomas Donovan, who has been obliged to give up his place on account of ill health. Mr. Kehoe will return home in a few days.

The following is from the Portsmouth, O., Times: Mrs. B. G. West, an aged and esteemed citizen of this place, died last Tuesday of cancerous tumor of the mouth, after suffering with the dread affliction for many years. Her maiden name was Amy Kelly, and she was born in Mason county, Ky., November 4, 1809. Her parents removing there from Maryland as far back as 1795. She united with B. G. West in marriage in Mason county, August 29, 1827, and they removed to this place in 1852. Five children were born of the union: Mrs. Isaac Wheeler, of this city; Mrs. J. M. Cady, of Parkersburg, W. Va.; and Charles R. West, of Cynthia, Ky., the other two children having preceded her to the grave.

The trial of Direly, the negro charged by Detective Burnett with the murder of the Gibbons children, begins at Ashland to-day. Jones and Kendall, the other negroes alleged to be implicated in the crime, have appeared and expressed their readiness to be tried also. The general impression seems to be that there is nothing in the case and that all three of the accused will be discharged when the examination is made. Detective Norris retired from the case and expresses the opinion that the charges made by Detective Burnett are without foundation.

The gentlemen appointed by the Fair Company as a committee to solicit subscriptions to the premium list of the coming annual exhibition, were pleased to say, are meeting with success. The responses thus far have been very liberal, and no one in the city who has been approached on the subject has refused to give something. It is absolutely necessary to secure a fair this fall that at least $2,000 should be subscribed, and this is to be hoped will be raised this week. Let everybody in the city contribute something and do it promptly.
